

Parkwalk invites you to a virtual event highlighting the Imperial College Innovation EIS Fund

For all potential investors who are interested in the Imperial College Innovation Fund I we would be delighted if you would join us on a webinar to run through the fund in more detail, and to showcase not only Imperial College Innovations, the Imperial College London (“Imperial”) Technology Transfer Office, but also some of the current Imperial spinouts that may be relevant investment pipeline for this fund.

The webinar will be on Thursday 21st May 11am-12pm

Draft agenda:

- Introduction by the Provost and Vice Provost highlighting Imperial’s scientific position
- Parkwalk intro and discussion on EIS funds
- Imperial College Innovations’ insights on current spinout activities
- Investment pipeline case studies (see below)
- Q&A

Imperial has a long history of ground-breaking scientific research and disruptive technologies. The commercial development of these technologies supports Imperial’s mission to disseminate the results of its research and scholarly activities for the benefit of society.

Two such companies, selected by Imperial College Innovations, will be presenting at the event:

1. HydroCotton – a sustainable cotton using precision agriculture
2. Bumblee – wireless charging technology
